PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It's always exciting to have a new quilt shop in our area. The Quilt Cupboard recently moved to Garden Grove and reopened for business on August 27, 2007. I took Sheri (the owner) and Annie (the shop cat) some treats on behalf Acacia Guild and welcomed them to their new home. The Quilt Cupboard is located on Lampson at Manley (between Valley View and Seal Beach Boulevard). Drop by and say "hello" to Sheri and Annie.

September is an exciting month for Acacia. We are delighted to be hosting the world famous Billie Lauder on Saturday 8, 2007 for a lecture/demo in the morning followed by a workshop in the afternoon. There are only a few spaces left so please sign up at the meeting. We are looking forward to a full house for this special event.

The holidays are only 3 months away however we at Acacia are prepared. We are having a small but delightful holiday boutique at the September meeting so come early and get those holiday gifts (all handcrafted and handmade) for friends, family and co-workers. Our offerings include sewn items, craft items and food items (fruit jam and fruit chutneys).

We have the nicest quilters in Acacia. It is a pleasure to be part of such a wonderful guild!

Best wishes – Sonia Das, President

September General Meeting
Sept. 6, 2007 at 6:45 p.m.
Buena Park Senior Center
8150 Knott Ave.
Buena Park CA.

SPEAKER SUSAN STOKES will give a short talk on Emergency Preparedness .

"UGLY" FABRIC EXCHANGE

Bring a yard of 100% cotton fabric that you wonder how it ever got in your stash. Here are the details:

Please pre-wash and iron the fabric. Bring a scissors to start your tears. We are going to tear and trade until we have pieces approximately 6 inches square.

Then, you have 2 months to make a quilt from the fabric you trade.
You must use ALL the fabric somewhere in your quilt, but you may cut the fabric to any size you want. You may want 2 or 4" squares, 6" strips, or triangles. The quilt should not be larger than 48" in either direction. You may use other fabrics with your "ugly" fabrics, but they cannot predominate. (Backing and bindings completely of other fabrics are fine.)

Please do not bring large scale prints, as they will not work well with the approximately 6" format.
Remember, what is "ugly" to you may be gorgeous to someone else! There WILL be prizes for the quilts voted best by our members at our November meeting.

"ZIP-LOCK TREASURES"

Our other activity for September will be an exchange of gallon sized zip-lock bags filled with leftover blocks, leftover fabric, UFOs, unneeded machine appliqué pieces, etc.

Each bag should contain at least the equivalent of one fat quarter of fabric. You may stuff the bag full, but it must zip.

When you turn in your bag, you will write your name on a ticket.
The tickets will be drawn, and you will have 30 seconds to pick the "Zip Lock Treasure" of your choice. There will be an "emergency" bag in case the last person is left with their own bag.

The bag may not be opened until you return to your seat. And, no complaining about what you picked. If you can't use it, donate it to our next Brown Bag so someone else can enjoy it.

We all have something left over or started and never finished in our sewing room. Gather it up, put it in a gallon zip lock, and let's all have some fun!

Phyllis Campbell

Phyllis Campbell, one of the founders of the Acacia Quilt Guild and a past President was also the very first person to sign onto and join a new Quilt website. The website is called "Grace Full Creations" and has just reached 1000 members. In celebration of that event, the website published a profile of Phyllis—it's first member. With permission from both the owners of the website and Phyllis herself, I am extracting for you some of the information from that article.

Who taught you to sew/quilt and when?

My mom taught me to sew as a child. My first interest in quilting was the doll quilts she made for me. Some of them were made from pieces of Nazi flags that my uncle brought back from WWII.

My instruction in quilting the past 7 years has been from Lyn Brown, a teacher with the No. Orange Co. Community College District. I was in charge of the Cypress Senior Center before I retired, and set up her class there a month before I retired, so that I could take it when it did retire. The class averages 50 students just about every week. Lyn is a great teacher, and I have learned many techniques from her.

What was your most favorite project to work on and why?

I enjoy many aspects of quilting, but my favorites are watercolor quilts and Fantasy Flower quilts.

About how many quilts have you made?

I've never counted, but it must be dozens. I have also made 5 quilted jackets.

Would you consider yourself a traditionalist, contemporary quilter, or a fiber artist?

I enjoy all aspects of quilting, except hand quilting. I guess I am more contemporary than traditional, but I have made 3 different types of log cabin quilts.

Do you piece your quilts or also quilt them?

I machine quilt my quilts, usually free-motion with many types of decorative thread.

What is your favorite part of the process?

My favorite parts of making a quilt are designing it and quilting it. I LOVE free-motion quilting and have quilted all but one of my quilts myself.

Do you do hand work, machine or both?

I do mostly machine quilting, but I do some applique by hand and finish my bindings by hand.

Do you design your own quilts or use patterns?

I have designed many of my own quilts, and have also used patterns. When I use a pattern, I always change it in some manner to make it my own.

Was there any project that you hated after you finished it and why?

Some of my first attempts at free-motion quilting were pretty bad, but I still was okay with the finished quilts.

If you couldn't quilt what other hobby/craft would you do?

I love many arts and crafts. I wish I had more time to do some of the other things I love. I paint with watercolors, acrylics, and inks. I used to crochet a lot, but it hurts my hands now. I am currently teaching my grandson to make a mosaic garden ornament. I also love to make jewelry with the great variety of beads and stones now available at reasonable prices.

Do you have any other hobbies or what are other things you like to do?

Besides the above, I love to read and garden. My husband and I love to travel and have traveled to nearly every state.

Estimate how many yards of fabric you have in your stash:

Wow, I have no idea, but it must be at least 400 to 500 yards. I have fabric in two rooms and our motorhome. I have wire shelves in a 6 foot closet that are overflowing onto the floor. They are labeled by color and type, such as holiday, batik, solids, flannel, etc. In the other bedroom, I have bags of fabric, and several bins too. The motorhome has plastic bins with fabric sorted by color and type.

Estimate how many projects you currently have unfinished:

Probably a dozen.

What was the most significant lesson that you learned through quilting?

I've learned that almost all quilters are nice people whom I enjoy meeting and getting to know. I have learned the hard way just how much work is required to start a quilt guild. I founded Acacia Quilt Guild of Orange County almost 3 1/2 years ago with the help of some fellow quilters.

If you could advise younger or less experienced quilters, what would you say?

Don't ever think you have learned everything there is to learn about quilting. There is always more to learn. Try everything you can. You don't know until you try it whether it will be something you will really enjoy and/or be especially good at doing. The other thing I would advise is not to forget to take photos of your

Susann Wood, Hospitality Chairman

We wish the following members a very Happy Birthday in September and thank them in advance for providing the refreshments for our monthly meeting:

Randy Haller,

Tricia Savage,

Linda Sterns,

Margot Taub.

Please feel free to bring any sumptuous snacks even if it is not your birthday.

Your generosity is always appreciated and we are a great testing ground for any of those new recipes you would like to try out. Veggie and fruit items are also very popular.

A special thank you to Nancy Malm for making two beautiful aprons for the Hospitality Committee. They will be proudly worn while we are serving you!

Library

Chairman
Linda Sterns

Have you bought a book lately? They can be sooo expensive. Have you wanted to try a new skill/craft or been looking for a new block pattern and just didn't know if it was worth the purchase price of that new book? Well, we have an alternative! Acacia Quilt Guild has a library.

Our library, run this year by Linda Stearns, contains books on subjects from Applique to Hand Quilting, from Quick Quilts to Heirloom! There are even books on redwork and beading!

Take a few minutes and browse the library at the meeting. Check out a book on some subject you have been wanting to explore. It won't cost a thing!

The newsletter will be featuring books each month for your consideration. This month we have:

Books of the Month

Wildflower Album by Bea Oglesby
Favorite Patchwork Patterns by Henry Pelletier
Country Quilts In A Day by Fran Roen
Quilts to Wear by Virginia Avery
Star Log Cabin by Eleanor Burns
Red and White: American Redwork Quilts by Harding

Long twin	66"X94"	80"X113"
Full	82"x89"	96"X108"
Queen	88"X94"	102"X113"
King	104"X94"	118"X113"
Cal.King	100"X98"	114"X117"

from her to others.

Billie has a knack for making quilting easy for all levels of quilters. She loves to develop "Quick Trick" methods of quilt construction. A traditional quiltmaker with a twist. She loves to get quilters jazzed and excited to try a new technique for construction or look at something old in a new way. She likes to see just how far she can "push" a block. Her classes can be accomplished by all levels.

WHO IS Billie Lauder

Well-known teacher and author Billie Lauder comes to Acacia Quilt Guild on Saturday, September 8 at 11:00 a.m. in the large meeting room of the Buena Park Senior Citizens Center. There will be a "Demonstration Workshop". From 1:00 p.m. to 4 p.m. Space limited to 55 people. Cost for workshop is $25.00 for members, $35.00 non-members.

Billie is proud to be a third generation quiltmaker. She has been teaching quilting since 1976. When asked what quilting meant to her, Billie said "It is the past, the present and the future." The past is her learning from her grandmother and mother. The present is her current teaching of her students. And the future is the people who will pass on the knowledge of what they have learned

Writing and designing books has been a great challenge for Billie. With 24 books published by Easymade Publications over the last several years, Billie has a vast library to draw upon for her workshops and lectures. The HGTV show "Simply Quilts" helped Billie launch her lecture tour, which continues to take her all over the world.

Billie is currently working on new ideas for "Pushing the Four-Patch", "Quilts In A Row", and designing new patterns for Easymade Publications.

Billie is calling her workshop a demonstration workshop. She says:

"Bring your pencil, notebook and cameras. I will show you some wonderful "Quick Quilt Tricks" to make your quilt construction easier and faster.

SUPER SENIOR SATURDAY STUNNING SUCCESS!

Acacia Quilt Guild sold $75 of boutique items and over $80 of opportunity tickets at Super Senior Saturday on August 18, 2007. Super Senior Saturday is an annual community event held at the Buena Park Senior Center providing health screenings and information about different services available to seniors and their family, friends and caretakers.

Many thanks to the following quilters for volunteering their time that day:

Sonia Das	Mona McCormick	Dana Matsukawa
Judy Hunsaker	Nancy Malm	Tess Matsukawa
Sharon Monge	Charlotte Hansen	Linda Stearns
Susann Woods	Phyllis Campbell	Susan Stokes

I will also bring the great sewing toys I use when I make my quilts.

After you see how easy it is to make these blocks you will want to get to your sewing machine as fast as you can!"

Hi, Secret Pals:

Well, What a surprise! Someone gave me a Secret Pal gift! Now I know what it feels like.

As the coordinator of the program I have not been a participant in the gift exchanges—except to organize and ask subtle questions and be a go-between for other people. Well, I guess I thought I knew what it was like, but until there was a package with MY name on it, I really didn't get it. SOOOO—whoever was so kind as to think of “lil ol’ me”—THANK YOU—not only for the SURPRISE, but for helping me understand what the rest of you have been feeling. As they used to say when my son was in kindergarten—that was a “warm fuzzy!”

The subject of title has been coming up lately. As a proponent of the Romeo line “a rose by any other name ...” I didn't think it was a big issue—but people have been asking why it's called “Sew-So-Late” when the hours are 11:00a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on the last Friday of the month. That's not late at all!

When we began using “The Bunney Hutch” craft room for our sewing day we were allocated the hours of 6:00 p.m. to midnight on the last Saturday of the month. However, Bunney Hutch has been going through a turnover in both personnel and management and last fall requested that the hours for our group be changed. Grateful for any consideration, we agreed!

Now, if you feel the name is inappropriate, please contact Sharon with new ideas. So far, "Sew-So-Much" has been suggested. What do you think?

Don't forget the date change in September (only)
We'll be meeting on the 14th at the Bunney Hutch from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

A Beanbag Explosion

Helen and Joyce Whittaker, sisters-in-law and members of Acacia Quilt Guild, just couldn't resist the challenge when Tiffany's (that's Helen's granddaughter) teacher asked if they could make some bean bags for the second grade class. The teacher said she would love to have some bean bags to play games with the students, but they were "SOOO Expensive!"

Initially, Helen and Joyce thought of putting numbers and letters on the bean bags (or rice bags to be more accurate) and then the project grew! Helen took an old cloth measuring tape, cut off 12 inches and sewed it onto a background. They picked patterns from coloring books and used cookie cutters and even had one of Helen's sons draw some pictures for them. They found fabric with appealing designs and fussy cut them—fish, rocket ships and airplanes.

When Helen was choosing fabrics at one of the guild meeting sales, the seller asked what she was going to use it for. Helen explained and the seller responded, "you aren't buying these" and donated the fabric for the bean bags.

"What we thought they'd like, like the butterfly, wasn't as much a favorite as the smiley face and picture frame!" said Helen. All in all, Helen and Joyce took over 40 bean bags to the class. "It was really FUN!" Helen said. "The more we did, the more we wanted to make!"

Here are some of the Thank You's from the kids:

Dear Helen Thank you for the beanbags. I really like the baseball. Were the beanbags hard to make. I like the other ones to. Are you going to make more. Do you have enay more beanbags that you didn't show us? From Michael

Dear Healen Thank You. I love the froggy one. It is so cut. I can't wait to play games. They are so soft and warm. I want to go to p.e. to play with them. All of them are rilly pretty. The rice makes it so much fun to play with. The football. From Jessica

Dear, Grandma Hellen, Thank you for the bean bags. My favorit bean bag was the yellow shark. The class realy likes them. I think the shapes and dezines are very silly. Your friend, Mary Barbara
